Selection Camp for the Junior Women National Team

The best junior athletes of Canada will be in Perpignan, in France south-west area to participate in the final selection camp of our Junior Women National Team from December 26th to January 4th.

To earn their participation in this selection camp, athletes from western Canada and eastern Canada had to qualify in two pre-camps hosted by Edmonton for the western athletes and La Prairie for the eastern athletes.

The next step for our national team will be the Pan-American championships in 2008.
