CTHF 2008 National Championships

The CTHF informs its members of two major changes in the Juvenile and Junior categories. First, the Junior Championship, still hosted by the Quebec Team Handball Federation will change venues. It will be transfer from the Montreal region to the Quebec region. The LOC will provide us in a near future the details of its organisation.

The Juvenile Championship is leaving Manitoba and will be organize by the Alberta Team Handball Federation. They will determine the venue in the next two weeks. They will choose between Calgary and Edmonton. More details to come from their LOC in the next two weeks.

We remind to the Provincial Federations the first deadline of February 29th 2008. The provinces will have to declare their intents to participate by category for the next 2008 championships.

We also remind you the age limit for the different categories for these championships:

Juveniles: aged between 16 and 18 years old (born in 1990 and later)

Juniors: aged between 19 and 21 years old (must be 21 at the beginning of the tournament)

Seniors: 22 years old and over
