CTHF 2009 National Championships

The CTHF is confirming the name of the host cities for the next Canadian Team Handball National Championships.

First, the Junior Championships will be in Regina, in the province of Saskatchewan. The Senior Championships will be in Alberta, in the city of Edmonton. Finally, la Fédération Québécoise de Handball will host the Juvenile category and the championship will be in the city of Granby.

We will prepare in the next newsletter a resume of the different aspects of these championships.

We insist on the first deadline of these championships. The provinces have to confirm their participation by Friday, February 27th 2009.

We remind to the Provincial Federations that the first deadline is February 27th 2009. The provinces will have to declare their intents to participate by category for the next 2009 championships. The provinces will have to submit the #1 form and making sure that they completed part A and B.

We also remind you the age limit for the different categories for these championships:

Juveniles: aged between 16 and 18 years old (born in 1991 and later)

Juniors: aged between 19 and 21 years old (must be 21 at the beginning of the tournament)

Seniors: 22 years old and over

Senior Men National Team

The Canadian Senior Men National Team will fly to the Azores Island from March 17th until March 24th 2009 and participate in an international tournament. This tournament is the first activity before the final selection training camp and tour prior the next Pan American Team Handball Championships.

We will publish in the next newsletter the names of the participating athletes.
